STAGE INTRODUCTIONS

CHOOSE THE VIBE THAT FITS YOUR EVENT

01 BRIEF

20–30 SECONDS

Our next speaker is a leadership coach, author, and keynote speaker who has spent his career helping high performers build success without sacrificing the life they're working so hard to create.

He's coached and trained thousands of professionals, built a career around leadership and growth, and is the author of The Entrepreneur's Regret.

Today, he's here to challenge the way we think about success, achievement, and what it really means to win. Please welcome to the stage, Mat Lewczenko!

02 FORMAL

45–60 SECONDS

Our next speaker has spent more than 16 years studying, practicing, and teaching what it takes to perform at a high level—and what can happen when achievement comes at too high a cost.

Mat Lewczenko is a leadership coach, author, and keynote speaker who has coached and trained thousands of professionals throughout his career. His background spans entrepreneurship, executive leadership, sales, recruiting, and organizational growth, including personally recruiting more than 1,300 professionals.

But some of Mat's most important lessons didn't come from his biggest wins. They came from realizing that success on paper doesn't always feel like success in real life.

Today, through his work around Achievement Addiction and the No Regrets Blueprint, Mat helps high performers redefine their scoreboard and build success they can actually enjoy. Please join me in welcoming author of The Entrepreneur's Regret, Mat Lewczenko.

03 CASUAL

30–45 SECONDS

Alright, our next speaker knows a little something about chasing big goals.

He's built businesses, led teams, recruited more than 1,300 professionals, coached thousands of people, written a book about regret—and somewhere along the way realized that checking every box doesn't mean you're actually winning.

These days, Mat Lewczenko spends his time helping high achievers stop moving the goalpost long enough to make sure the success they're building is actually a life they want to live.

He'll probably make you laugh. He might make you a little uncomfortable. And there's a pretty good chance he'll make you rethink your definition of success. Please welcome Mat Lewczenko!
